Comes the Knowledge,
Experience,
Happiness, Sadness,
Traditions . . .

. . . All to be Remembered in the Future

DEFINITION

OUT of many, there is always one who thinks only of helping others and forgets his own comforts and desires.

Because of his untiring devotion to both the student body and the administration . . .

Because he can be counted on in time of need . . .

Because he is understanding in the time of despair . . .

Because he has dedicated his whole life to the betterment of Northwestern . . .

Because he has given so much unselfishly, and received so little recognition . . .

Because the student body, as a whole, can say, "Truly, he is my friend" . . .

We proudly and humbly dedicate the 1955 POTPOURRI to

HAL E. TOWNSEND

President of N. S. C.

We at Northwestern State College are well aware that a campus group constitutes a unique community, and that this community provides singular opportunities for the richest of human experiences. We endeavor to be happily serious academically, to be reasonably carefree in recreation and to live together in a spirit of mutual trust and helpfulness.

On our campus, faculty and staff have confidence in the mind and heart of students; students strive to merit the approval of their instructors. Working together, we shall do our utmost to extend the best of the old and to appropriate the good that may come from the spirited use of the new. Our supreme wish is that we may merit the respect and confidence of all who labor for a better college.

EVE MOUTON
Acting Dean of Women

The Dean of Women and the Dean of Men are responsible for the general welfare and happiness of the entire student body. Their services to Northwestern State College are numerous and time consuming. The duties of the Dean of Women are not limited to the academic phase of the women students' life, but reach out to include work with social programs. She also serves as advisor of their student government. The Dean of Men is in charge of the regulation of academic standards, and serves as an arbiter in certain infractions of men's rules.

The College is divided into five schools for the purpose of administration of instruction and in keeping with the offerings.

The objective of the School of Applied Arts and Sciences, headed by Dr. George T. Walker, is to prepare students for employment in professional fields of business nursing, industry, and agriculture.

Dr. C. E. Dugdale is Dean of the School of Arts and Sciences. The objective of this school is to prepare students for entry into professional schools such as law, medicine, and ministry, and also for vocations in various fields.

The objective of the School of Nursing, headed by Hilda Claire Burnham, is the promotion of health, disease prevention, rehabilitation and the care of the handicapped and ill.

John A. Jones is Dean of the School of Education, which has as its objective the professional training of teachers.

The primary purpose of the Graduate School, headed by Leo T. Allbritten, is to improve and strengthen the classroom instructional programs of the elementary school and the high school teachers of the State, and to increase the competency and the effectiveness of the administrators and supervisors in the schools.

The Student Senate, the legislative branch of student government at Northwestern State College, is in its seventh year of existence on the campus. Although its primary function is legislative, the student senate performs many other services to the student body.

In addition to carrying on its legislative program, the senate edits the student handbook which is issued to incoming students to introduce them to the college.

The senate has as its goal the making of student government more representative and valuable to student interests.

Mr. Charles Ross, Student Counselor, served as this year's sponsor of the senate, giving helpful assistance and advice.

The senate is composed of members who are willing to give unselfishly of their time in the interest of the student body of Northwestern.

The Honor Court

The Student Honor Court is composed of seven justices nominated by the Dormitory Councils, selected by the Honor Court, and approved by the Advisory Board. The Honor Court serves as the disciplinary body of student government and has delegated power to act upon cases of violation or infraction of the rules governing the conduct of men students on the campus. By building higher standards of conduct and citizenship on the campus among the men students, and by administering justice through a student group, the court represents another step forward in student government.

The Associated Women Students Council was organized at Northwestern in 1947. It is a member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students. The purpose of this organization is to promote, in cooperation with the Dean of Women, the intellectual, social and spiritual welfare of women students, to develop self-responsibility, and a spirit of cooperation, and to uphold high social and academic standards among women students. The Executive Council guides the Association and the Judicial Board acts in the event of violation of rules governing women students. Membership is automatic upon enrollment in the college. Through the Big Sister program and the work of Sophomore Counselors, help is given the freshmen women students. Highlighting the year's activities are the "A.W.S. Backward Dance," Christmas at Home, and Spring Convocation.

The Purple Jackets

The Purple Jacket Club which was founded by President V. L. Roy in 1927, is the oldest honor club to be organized on the campus. Formerly directed by Miss Catherine Winters, the group is now under the sponsorship of Miss Ruth Tatum. It has as its purpose to serve the college and student body as their official representatives. The members act as assistant hostesses on college occasions. They assist, upon request, in carrying out any program of the faculty or administrative staff. They work together to further development of character and leadership. The Purple Jacket Club honors women students who have demonstrated good scholarship, good character and a desire to cooperate with all units of the college in unselfish service. Highlighting this year's Purple Jacket activities were the Purple Jacket Homecoming, annual Purple Jacket Review, and the Spring Trip.

To date there has not been found any way to publish a newspaper without somebody working. Publishing The Current Sauce is not a seasonal "sport," but a week-after-week routine, which can be as monotonous or as exciting as the news it covers.

Everything happening on this campus is a story. Not all the stories make front page headlines; some never even get close to the ink. News-wise this is a very cooperative campus. This plus a small but real ink-blooded staff of collegiate journalists give the Sauce the coverage it maintains.

Though not always "current" because of occasional technical difficulties, the college newspaper has all the "sauce"—and usually pretty well seasoned with campus doings.

The Current Sauce, "published weekly, except during holidays and test weeks, by the Student Body of Northwestern State College," has the most freedom of any college press anywhere. Maybe once or twice this past year as in others, this privilege has been abused, but at least the Sauce is not an opinionless wad of newsprint. Sauce has sometimes not only "all the news that's fit to print" but then some.

Hiding, Gerald?

The 1955 POTPOURRI had its beginning last August, when Janis Meyer and Louise Pons traveled to Benson Printing Company in Nashville, Tennessee to lay out the dummy. The year has been filled with the gathering of material, the Potpourri Ball, the selection of the beauties, and the many, many other things that it takes to make a yearbook. We wish to thank all those who have made this book possible, especially to Mr. W. A. Benson, Jr., of Benson Printing Company; Mr. Jimmy Cobb, of Shreveport Engraving Company; and Mr. Robert Humphrey, our faculty advisor, of much patience and understanding in time of need. The 1954-55 staff of the POTPOURRI have tried to bring you a record of the past year in this book—we hope you like it.

The College Singers under the direction of Richard Lamb had a full musical season. They participated in the Louisiana Music Teachers Association Convention, the Alumni Luncheon at Homecoming, the Natchitoches Christmas Festival, and tours throughout the State. The group presented Thompson's "Peaceable Kingdom" at the spring concert.

This year the College Chorus combined with the faculty members and towns people to form the Natchitoches-Northwestern Choral Society. On December 9, this group presented Handel's "Messiah" assisted by the Natchitoches-Northwestern Concert Orchestra. Their spring concert in May featured Brahms' "Requiem."

Trumpets: Jack Shook, Curtis Hoglan, Gerald Carter.

Rhythm Section: Owen Phillips, Dean Clark, Gardner Vaughn.

The Demonaires, Northwestern's Dance Band under the direction of Curtis Hoglan, started the year off right with new uniforms—blue coats replace the old maroon ones.

The band has been in demand for all-college dances, private dances, and high school dances throughout the state, as well as being called upon to play at air bases.

Music by the Demonaires consisted of current popular hits, all-time favorites, Latin-American numbers and the always-in-demand "Jump Tunes."

The debaters started the year off right by taking sweepstakes in three divisions—senior men, senior women, and junior women—at their second tournament in Ada, Oklahoma. Compiling the points for these honors were one first place, one superior rating, three excellent ratings, one third place, seven good ratings, and seven other finalists.

At the Savage meet in Durant, Oklahoma, this spring, the squad earned one first place, five second places, five third places, and ten other finalists, including a third place in debate for Naomi Meadows and Edwina Foster.

The squad hosted the Louisiana Speech tournament with 25 schools participating. S.M.U. won sweepstakes honors here, but the local debaters had two first places and a second. The squad also sponsored a high school debate meet and a coaches' clinic.

Three debaters, along with Coach Graham, attended the national Pi Kappa Delta tournament in Redlands, California, where Phil Wilcox and Weldon Walker competed in debate, Richard Smith in oratory and discussion.

At other tournaments in Ruston, Clinton and Jackson, Mississippi, Waco and Nacogdoches, Texas, the team received two superior ratings, one excellent rating, had two other finalists, and four debate teams reached the elimination rounds.

The Artist Series

The Artist Series, in cooperation with the Natchitoches Concert Association attempts to bring to the campus numbers that will appeal to faculty, townspeople, and students—numbers that are excellent in the field of music, dance, and drama. This season's offerings included Nelson and Neal in a two-piano concert; the Boston Pops Symphony Orchestra; the Chanticleers Male Quartette; and The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial starring William Bendix. Through the hospitality extended to the artists by the committees, many students and faculty members have had the added opportunity of meeting the artists socially.

Dramatics

The Northwestern State College Theater, under the direction of Dr. Edna West, boasts one of the finest and best-equipped stages in the state. The Theater opened its 1954-1955 season with Christopher Fry's adaptation of the delightful comedy, "Ring Round the Moon," by Jean Anouilh. Cast in this charade were such popular figures as Jack Sharp, Bobby Byles, Dencil Taylor, Mazie Dranguet, and "Chick" Graham. New faces notable in this production were Weldon Walker, "Jody" Tarver, Naomi Meadows, and Lee Ann Lacy. For the scenic effectiveness orchids go to Sterling Minturn and Pat Kelley.

Realizing the need for college trained officers in the United States Armed Forces, the government established on the Northwestern State College campus in 1950 a Reserve Officers Training Corps unit of Anti-Aircraft Artillery.

Then in the fall of 1954 the United States Army decided to switch the artillery to the present curriculum of Branch General. Under the program, a student, upon graduation, is commissioned in the army branch of his choice.

Under the guidance of Lt. Col. Orlando Greening and his capable staff of instructors, the corps has seen a very prosperous year.

Miss Potpourri

The presentation of Miss Potpourri and her court highlighted the "Snowball" as the 11th annual Potpourri Ball was called this year.

Amid whirling snowflakes, JANIS MEYER accepted the title of Miss Potpourri of 1955. She and the court were selected by the POTPOURRI Staff on the basis of leadership, personality, and service to the school. The entire staff is proud to have her bear the title of the Northwestern yearbook.

Presented as her court were: Joan Evans, Nancy Kimbrell, Mona Grey Miller, Jean Noble, and Alcidie Thompson.

Chosen as Queen of two of Northwestern's big events was Barbara Dickerson. She first reigned as Cen-La Queen in Alexandria for the NSC-Louisiana College football clash. This was followed by her election as State Fair Queen for the annual football scrap between the Demons and Tech's Bulldogs at Shreveport. She participated in parades and pre-game ceremonies at both cities.

Reigning as Homecoming Queen was Patsy White. She participated in the parade through Natchitoches which was composed largely of floats entered by various organizations. The Queen and her court were officially presented at pre-game ceremonies.

Eighty-six dignitaries and leaders in education throughout the nation attended. Colleges and universities represented ranged from Harvard, founded in 1636, to Francis T. Nicholls Junior College, founded in 1948.

Among the speakers for the occasion were Dr. Doak S. Campbell, president of Florida State University; Dr. Roger P. McCutcheon, former dean of Graduate School at Tulane, and Dr. T. M. Stinnett of the National Education Association.

1954 Football Squad

Demons Enjoy Best Season Since Pre-War World War II Days

When the cleats were finally hung up, the 1954 football Demons had racked up seven victories with only two defeats—Northwestern's most successful post-war grid season. Five straight wins, the heartbreaking loss to Tech, two more impressive victories and the final disaster at Southeastern highlighted the '54 campaign.

Two Demon seniors—center Dudley Downing and guard Bob Tatum—were named to the NAIA All-American team. In addition, sophomore tackle Charlie Johnson and senior full-back Searle Walton were first-team selections on the All-Gulf States Conference eleven.

A rock-ribbed defense and relentless ground attack were the trademarks of the Purple and White gridders. Only the lack of a consistent passing attack stood between the Demons and greatness.

THE COACHES

H. Alvin Brown (Backfield); Harry H. Turpin (Head Coach); Walter P. Ledet (Line).

Most Valuable Player
DUDLEY DOWNING

N. S. C. 15; Central Oklahoma 6

Starting off the season in efficient if unspectacular form, the scrappy NSC eleven came to life in the third quarter for two quick touchdowns and a 15 to 6 victory over the Central State College Bronchos of Edmond, Oklahoma.

First-half scoring was limited to a field goal by Demon halfback Roland Smith and a 25-yard run by Oklahoma end Bill Moody with a blocked punt.

Immediately following the intermission, however, NSC fullback Searle Walton crashed down the middle for 40 yards and followed it up with a six-yard pay dirt drive. Rugged defensive work detached the Okies from the ball on the next series of downs and halfback Clyde Chesson wrapped it up with an 18-yard beauty.

Depth paid off in Northwestern's second outing as Coach Harry Turpin's noggin-knockers used a last-quarter scoring splurge for a 22-13 win over powerful Lamar Tech at Beaumont, Texas.

Tackle Charlie Johnson dropped back from the 10-yard line to boot a field goal and give the Demons a 3-0 lead in the first quarter, but Lamar quarterback Jerry Boone put the Cardinals ahead by 6-3 with a 20-yard scamper just before half-time.

Halfback Don Millen of Northwestern and halfback Sammy Carpenter of Tech, two All-Conference scatbacks, swapped touchdowns in the last half before the Turpinmen took charge of things with two TD's by halfback Roland Smith and fullback Searle Walton. Smith converted once for the final 22-13 margin.

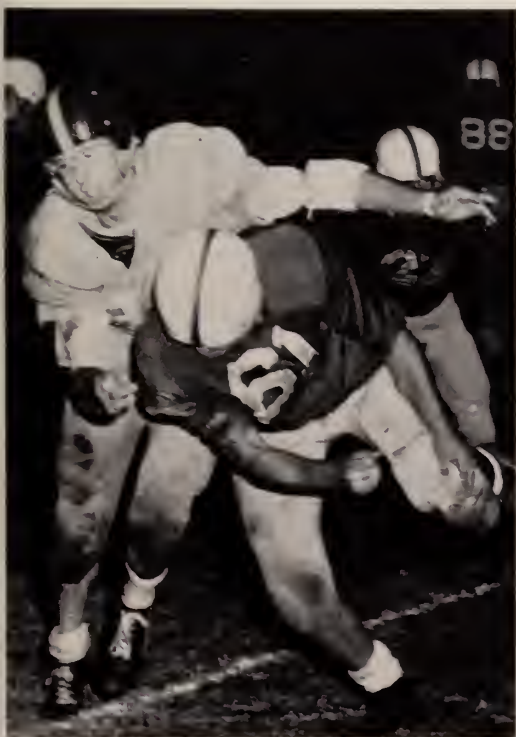

Definition of Body Contact

A fired-up crew of Northwestern gridders built up an impressive 26-0 halftime margin and staved off a comeback effort by the McNeese Cowboys to chalk up their first Gulf States Conference victory of the season, 32 to 20.

The NSC ground attack rolled through the Cowpokes almost at will for the first thirty minutes. Halfback Clyde Chesson scored the first two six-pointers on dives of three and seven yards. Then quarterback "Red" McNew hit pay-dirt on a 66-yard punt runback and quarterback Dan Carr slipped around end for 25 yards and Northwestern's fourth first-half touchdown.

Casual substituting in the second half almost got the Purple and White gridders into hot water in the second half as McNeese put itself back into the ball game, 26-20, on three quick touchdowns by Max Jones, Ken King and Mack Bryan. But the "big boys" came back and put it on ice by marching the length of the field in the closing minutes, with fullback Searle Walton crossing the double-stripes from the 3-yard line in the last 30 seconds for the clincher.

Northwestern overpowered an inspired band of Louisiana College Wildcats in the annual Central Louisiana gridfest at Alexandria to gain an important 6 to 0 conference victory.

Substitute fullback Don Purser broke through the line for 26 yards and the game-winning touch-down late in the second quarter to kill the Baptists' upset hopes. Earlier in the quarter a 60-yard touch-down run by LaCollege halfback Marshall Ryan had been nullified by a backfield-in-motion penalty.

A Wildcat drive in the last quarter was stopped at the NSC 15-yard line by All-American center Dudley Downing's pass interception.

The surging Demons rolled to their fifth straight victory of the season and seventh in succession, the longest winning streak at Demonland since pre-Pearl Harbor days, by completely outclassing the highly-touted Southeastern (Oklahoma State College Savages, 38 to 0.

Halfback Don Millen tallied twice, fullback Searle Walton once (on an 86-yard run), quarterback "Red" McNew once, halfback Roland Smith once and quarterback Dan Carr once in Northwestern's most one-sided victory since the second game of the 1950 season. All GSC tackle Charlie Johnson added two conversions.

State Fair Game

With star halfback Clyde Chesson sidelined, the Purple and White eleven tasted defeat for the first time of the 1954 season at the hands of the heavier Louisiana Tech Bulldogs at Shreveport's State Fair Stadium, 13 to 6.

Northwestern snowballed the Northeast State Indians, 51-6, at Monroe to gain conference win number three and the sixth of the season.

Long touchdown sprints were the order of the day as speedsters Jack Bice, Larry Whitt and "Red" McNew broke loose for TD gallops of 74, 67 and 60 yards, respectively.

Other participants in the Demon Touchdown Parade were Searle Walton, Don Millen, Clyde Chesson and Dan Carr. McNew registered his second touchdown of the night on a "Fake Pass and Beat It" play.

Reinforcements coming

Playing in an unfamiliar underdog role for the first time of the season, Coach Turpin's back-to-the-wall Demons literally tore the Southwestern Bulldog apart before a Homecoming Crowd, 34 to 7.

It was the most lop-sided Demon win over the always-rough Southwestern eleven in Coach Turpin's 34 years as head coach. Northwestern went all the way the first time it touched the ball and didn't let up until the Bulldogs finally scratched on the game's last play from scrimmage.

Don Millen returned a punt 83 yards for NSC's first six-pointer. Then on a sustained drive Larry Whitt scored on a four-yard scamper. Roland Smith dove one yard for the third touchdown, as the game began to look like a rout.

In the last half "Red" McNew returned a punt

82 yards and senior halfback George Perkins cracked through the line for 19 yards for the fourth and fifth Northwestern TD's. A pass from Frank Gearen to Gene Burleigh accounted for SLI's only touchdown on the last play of the game from scrimmage.

Southeastern always plays like this

N. S. C. 6; Southeastern 32

Ball!

An injury-riddled Demon crew fought valiantly in the first half to hold unbeaten, untied Southeastern Louisiana to a 6 to 6 intermission tie, but a hospital list that grew with each play finally gave the Southeasterners a 32-6 decision in the game which decided the GSC championship.

The All-Conference passing battery of Ray Porta to Huey Husser gave SLC an early lead, but Northwestern's unsung heroes—the "Shock Troopers"—marched 90 yards in the second quarter to knot it up again, with Larry Whitt scoring on an end run from the four.

The dam broke in the last half when Northwestern's All-Conference tackle, Charlie Johnson, was sidelined with other Demon regulars, SLC scatbacks Don Marino, Louis Carlisle and Mickey Catalanotto broke loose for the four touchdowns that wrapped up the Lions' perfect season.

And so . . . a three-way tie with Tech and Southwestern for second place in the conference, the best over-all record since World War II, two All-Americans (no other Louisiana college had more than one) and the "fightingest" bunch of noggin-knockers in the Bayou Belt—that sums up the Northwestern Football Story of 1954.

1955 Basketball

Same song, second verse

Coach Charles (Red) Thomas' 1954-55 basketball five continued the winning tradition in the hardwood sport at Northwestern by capturing half of the Gulf States Conference championship and winning the Mid-West Tournament championship—both for the second straight years.

The resemblance between the 1954-55 Demons and the 1953-54 crew doesn't end there; last year's team set GSC scoring records for overall games and also for conference games. This year's Demon five broke both records.

High-scoring forward George McConathy was named to the first team of the All-GSC squad. Lightning-fast guards Dick Brown and Bill Collinsworth—the Demons' two "big little men"—were selected to the second team.

Brown and Collinsworth were also named to the All-Tourney team at the Mid-West Tournament in Terre Haute, Indiana, which NSC won for the second straight year. Thus the Demons became the second team in the tournament's 12-year history to win two straight crowns. No team has won it three straight.

Another "first" for Northwestern was the second straight GSC co-championship, this time with Louisiana Tech. No other team in conference history has figured in two straight championships.

The season started on a spectacular scale, as "little" Northwestern played Giant-Killer against the University of Arkansas by a 74-68 count. The Razorbacks, destined to finish second in the Southwest Conference, ran up a 12-point lead in the first half but saw it evaporate quicker than a Louisiana snow. For the last 15 minutes of the game Demons Brown, Ronnie Lebo and Murrell Walker played "hide and seek" with the frantic Porkers.

The speedy Brown outsped a tall North Texas five in Denton to score 30 points and lead the Demons to a 76-58 conquest of the Eagle hoopsters, but two nights later Southwest Conference championship-bound Southern Methodist University used accuracy at the free throw line to clip the NSC fast-breakers 99 to 86.

In the Demons' home opener freshman guard Ronnie Lebo dropped in 15 points to top the purple and White crew in a rough-and-tumble 79 to 65 victory over Southern State of Magnolia, Arkansas.

Two straight losses brought the Northwestern percentage mark to the .500 mark for the first—and only—time of the season as Stephen F. Austin clobbered the Demons 72 to 54 and powerful Southeastern Oklahoma buried Coach "Red" Thomas' charges under a 104 to 79 avalanche.

Following the Oklahoma disaster—which was the first time an opponent had ever reached the three-figure mark against a Thomas-coached NSC squad—the scrappy Demons bounced right back to nip the same team, 64 to 60, in the season's number one thriller and the turning point of the year.

Brown tallied 21 points, McConathy 13 and Collinsworth 11 in the second Oklahoma tilt. Brown and Collinsworth spent the last ten minutes dribbling the ball untouched five feet from the center line. When the Savages decided to play for the ball it was too late. The Southeastern five went from there to place second in the National Intercollegiate tournament.

After a shortened Christmas holiday period Northwestern journeyed to Terre Haute to successfully defend its Mid-West championship. In the tourney the Demons clipped Central Missouri, 89 to 75, and Anderson College, 65 to 59, in winning Number Two.

En route home the Demon five paused at Batesville, Ark., long enough to come out on top of a hectic 61 to 60 scrap with tiny Arkansas College, as George McConathy hung up 20 points for scoring honors, including two "money" free throws in the last five seconds.

Demonland as North Texas fell in a return match, 91 to 74, for NSC's fourth win in six nights. Collinsworth and Waple Lilley were the big guns for the Demons with 20 and 19 points, respectively.

Opening Gulf States Conference action in impressive fashion, Northwestern outran high-scoring Northeast to finish on top of a hectic 101-94 duel. Northeast guard Melvin Gibson scored 38 points, but a well-balanced Demon scoring punch led by McConathy's 24 marker proved to be too much for the classy Indians.

gave Louisiana Tech an 82-81 win over NSC at Ruston and darkened the Demons' early-season championship hopes. With the loss went a six-game winning streak. Gullat's game-winning points came in the last 30 seconds of play.

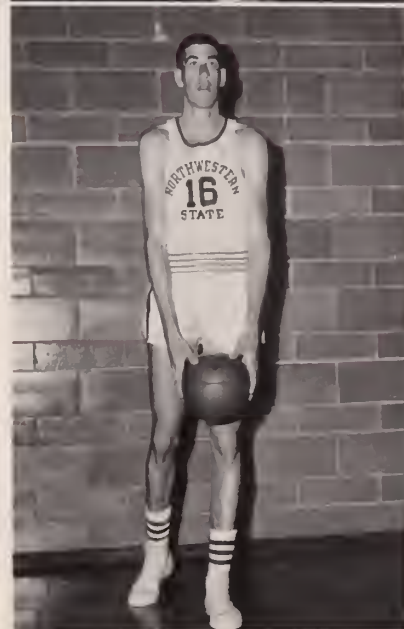

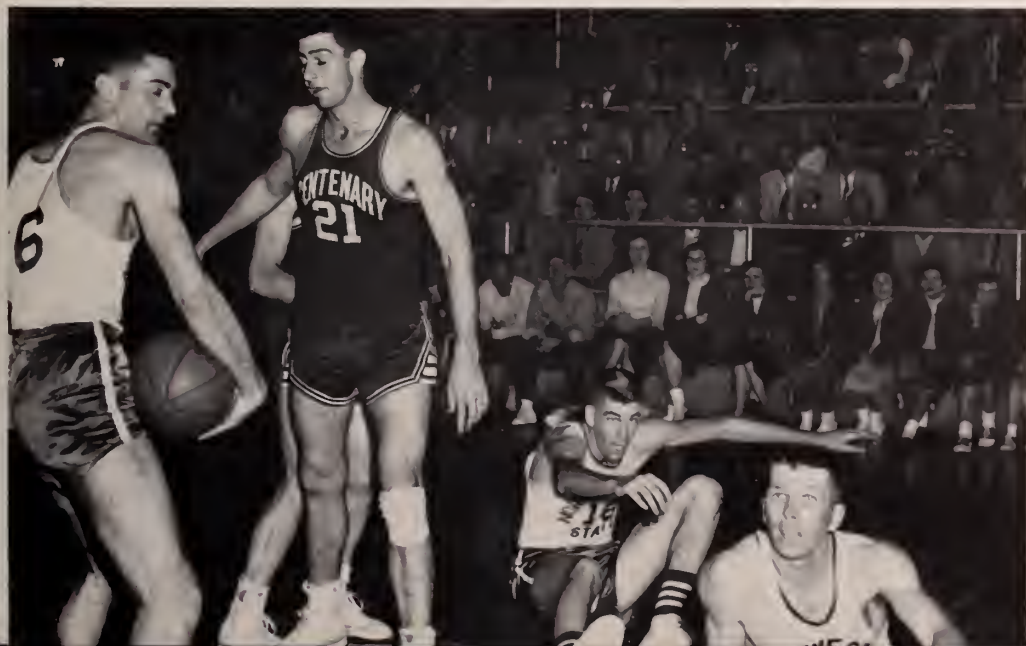

Centenary College was the victim of a rebounding Northwestern crew as the Gents fell in a 94-91 thriller. Brown took offensive laurels in that bitter rivalry with 32 points.

Northwestern's "flat" basketballers were steam-rollered by Stephen F. Austin for the second time in the season by a 78-73 tally. NSC trailed by 28-5 after eight minutes, but kept plugging away and reduced the margin to five points in the last two minutes.

Southwestern was the victim of a terrific second-half splurge at Natchitoches next as the Bulldogs, after trailing by only two points at the intermission, saw the bottom drop out and flopped by 91 to 55.

After trailing most of the second half NSC out-clutched the upset-minded Louisiana College

Wildcats 80 to 72 at Pineville. Brown and Walker led the way with 20 and 19, respectively.

Next in line was an 84 to 82 edge over always-powerful Southeastern, as all Demon regulars chipped in to crush the Lions' home-court winning tradition. Returning home, Northwestern drubbed McNeese 87 to 69 with McConathy racking up 31.

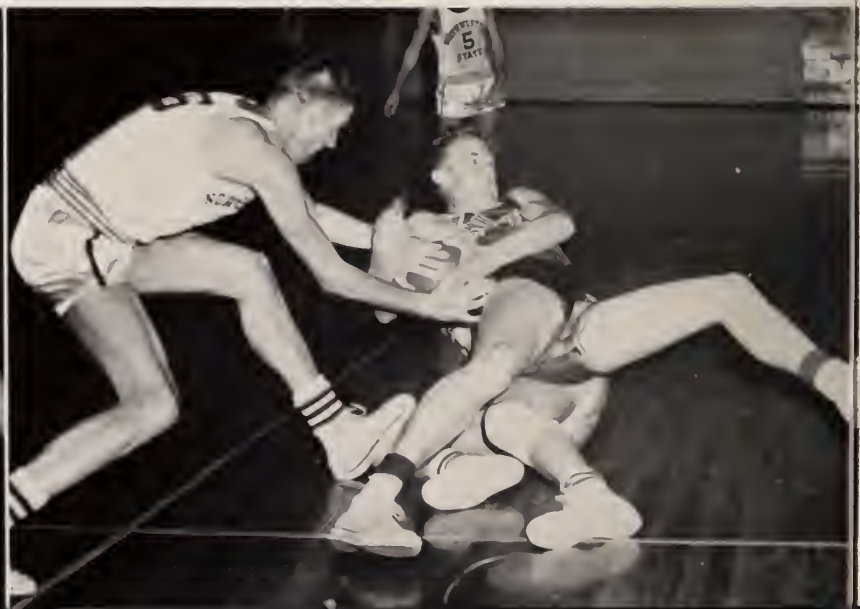

The highest-scoring game of the year saw Coach "Red" Thomas' warhorses rip into Southeastern on the Natchitoches boards, 106 to 78. Then the Demons rode into the conference lead with an overtime 99 to 94 decision over Southwestern at Lafayette.

Classy Bill Riegler of McNeese poured 32 points through the hoops as the Cowboys finished strong to beat Northwestern 60 to 59 at Lake Charles.

Cagers Hit 106 Against S. L. I.

In the following game NSC made it four straight over Centenary with a 79-76 overtime win. Lebo hit a long set shot in the last 15 seconds to throw the game into overtime and set the stage for the victory.

A 98-85 win over scrappy Louisiana College set the stage for Northwestern's final two regular-season games. In the first Tech gave a Demons a 93-72 shellacking and in the second NSC cinched half the championship with a solid 92-69 win over Northeast.

The Thomasmen still weren't through with Tech. In the first game of a three-game playoff to see who represented Louisiana at the National Intercollegiate tournament in Kansas City Northwestern copped the first game at Natchitoches, 93-91, but dropped the last two by scores of 83-80 and 95-92. Both were played at Ruston.

With five regularly-playing seniors leaving, Northwestern has a terrific replacement problem ahead for next year. But, with three straight 20-game seasons behind him, Demon mentor "Red" Thomas is already planning on a fourth.

The 1954 Northwestern State track and field squad won its second straight Gulf States Conference championship and its second straight Northwestern Relays title. Team Captain Murray (Doak) Walker, 880 flash J. P. Self, broad jumper Larry Whitt and two-miler Dennis (Hobo) Rider set al-time school records in the process. Outlook for the 1955 team is very good, although Walker and Rider were lost through graduation. A third straight Northwestern Relays title went to the Demons, and—breaking school records right and left—Coach Walter Ledet's classy thinclads left little doubt that they were headed for GSC championship Number Three also.

Baseball

A 2-2 split in a four-game series with powerful Centenary College and a four-game sweep over Barksdale Air Force Base featured Northwestern's 1955 baseball season, although the Demon's play in Gulf States Conference competition was only so-so. High point of the season was a 15-8 win over Southwestern, previously undefeated in conference play. All-GSC Larry Whitt, veteran Bob Weaver and flashy infielders Dick Brown, "Red" McNew and David Sosa were the big guns for NSC in the 1955 season, with top pitching duties coming from Jerry Lavespere and "Chuck" Wood.

Heavy losses by graduation didn't phase Coach John Piscopo's 1955 Northwestern State gymnastic team as the Demon gymnasts, led by sophomores "Sonny" Martinez, Barry Johnson and Bill Normand, and freshman Allan Lundgren, rolled through its second straight undefeated and untied season. The University of Texas, Texas A. & M., Louisiana State University and Kansas State College were among the schools that fell before the Demon gymnastic steamroller. NSC won the Gulf AAU championship, the Southwest AAU title and the Mid-South Intercollegiate—all for the second straight year—and captured its sixth consecutive Southern AAU crown.

Swimming

One of Northwestern's finest swimming teams in history emerged from the NSC Natatorium in the 1955 season, but some terrific competition kept the Demons' class from showing in the win-loss column. Paced by sophomore sensation Ray Timm, who holds five school records in the Back Stroke, Breast Stroke and Individual Medley events, the Demonfish took their only victories in a swing through the Deep South, in which NSC lowered the boom on Vanderbilt University and Tennessee Tech. Losses were to the University of Texas, Texas A. & M., Southern Methodist University, Florida State and Florida University. Timm, soph distance swimmer Jon Larry Starr and junior free styler Dean Clark were the high scorers, and all will be back next year. In the diving department the Demons were unequalled, with freshman Benny Wise and "Sonny" Hoff taking first and second in every meet.

Although championship prospects for the 1955 Northwestern golf team are slim, Coach Lorane Brittain has one of the Gulf States Conference's top club-wielders in veteran Bill Stanberry. The other positions are manned by newcomers Richard Grant, Jim Hill, John Hemperly, Don Purser, "Buster" King, Charles Monk, Richard Caspari and Harry Hyams. The GSC tournament, scheduled for Natchitoches this season, should find the Demon linksters holding their own with most of the teams in the conference.

Tennis

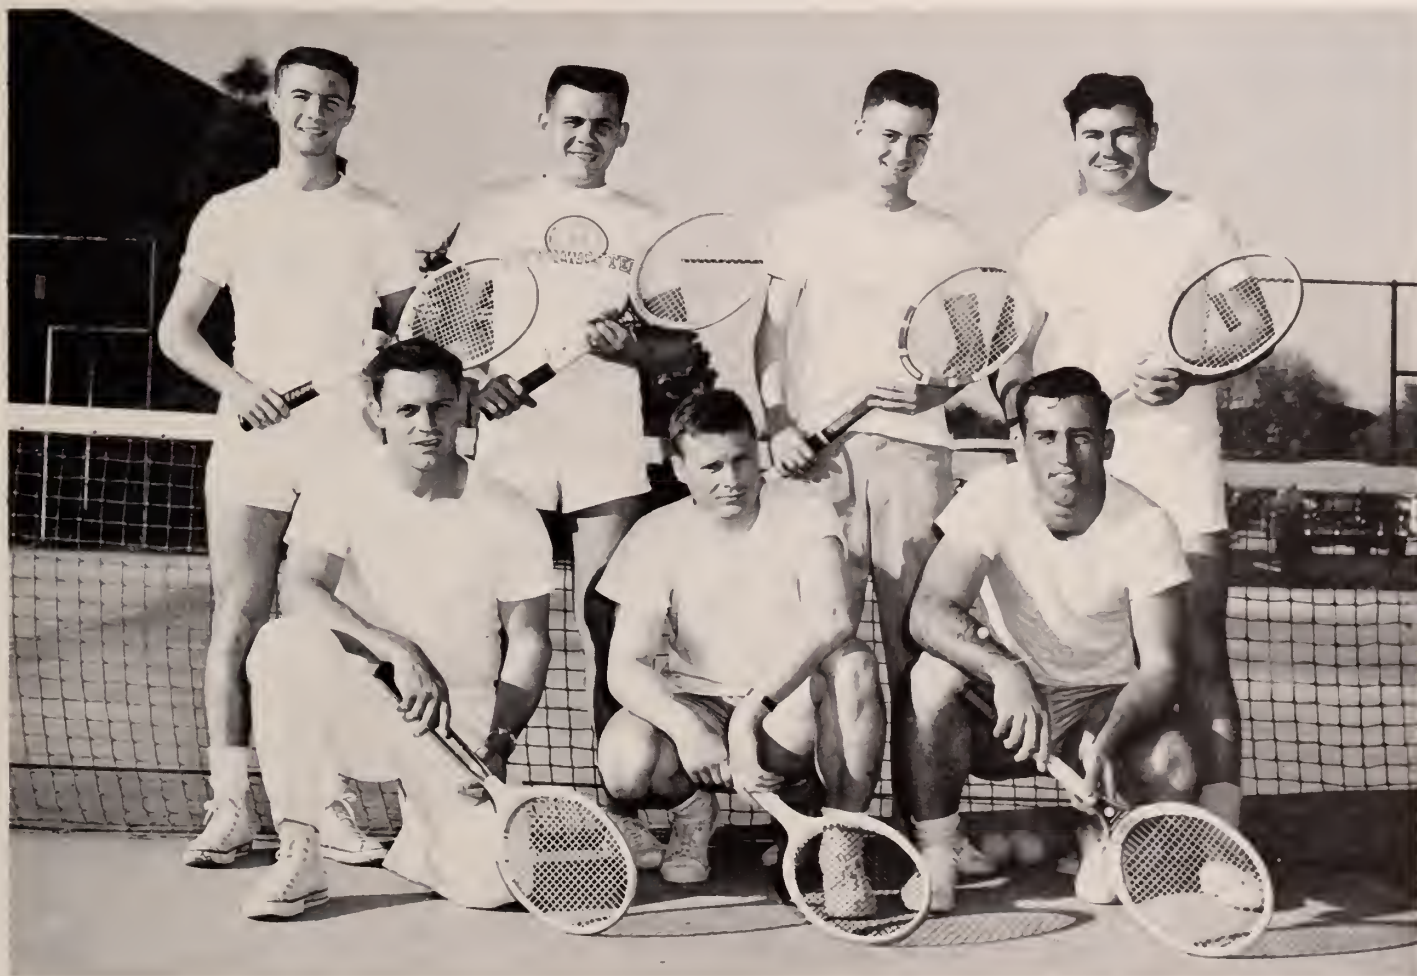

Heavy losses by graduations and scholastic shortcomings dampened the 1955 outlook for Northwestern's tennis team. Finally, the team buckled down to work with a nucleus of newcomers "Casey" Bryant, Willard Rachel, Bill Chamberlin, Jack Freeman and Alvin DeBlieux. The team defeated Northeast during the regular season to post one more victory than the preceding team. The tennis tournament for GSC schools is also scheduled for Natchitoches this year.

The purpose of this fraternity is to encourage, promote, extend, and create interest and scholarship in the fields of Accounting, Business Administration, and Business Education, and to reach the ideal of service as the basis of all worthy enterprises. The requirements of membership in the Alpha Nu Chapter, installed at Northwestern State College in 1938, are a "B" average in Business and a high scholastic average in all other subjects.

Demeter

The Beta Chapter of Demeter was chartered at Northwestern State College in 1935, having met all the standards required by the national organization which was founded earlier at Southwestern in Lafayette. Organized to promote better farm practices, the fraternity derives its name from the ancient goddess of the soil, Demeter. Serving as a link between the actual teaching of agriculture in the college and on the campus, Demeter serves as an integral part of the Agriculture Department and is a very active organization.
